DARLENE has been a professional calligrapher and graphic designer since 1978. Her work has been nationally published and internationally exhibited. In 1981, her work was chosen to appear among the world's top calligraphic artists in International Typeface Corporation's worldwide exhibition, "International Calligraphy Today."

Darlene offers her clients a wide range of lettering and calligraphic skills:

- Graphic Logotypes
- Decorative Initials
- Brush Renderings
- Drawn Letterforms
- Calligraphic Styles
- Formal Scripts

She studied with the type designer, Hermann Zapf, who encouraged her to expand her knowledge of written letterforms (calligraphy) to that of drawn letterforms (typography). In 1987, Darlene earned a Master's Degree in graphic design from Indiana University. Along with the design of typefaces, Darlene studied the historical and practical relationships between typography and calligraphy.
